

Unit 5: The Servant

Syllabus

OVERVIEW & PURPOSE

In this unit students will be introduced to the topic the Servant. Students should obtain a working knowledge of what it is, and who servant leaders are. Students will learn a brief history of famous servant leaders through history and how their leadership is based on a foundation of a specific philosophy. Finally, students should know what it takes to become a Servant leader and how their classrooms are great environments to start serving others and those in need

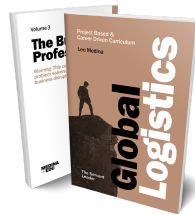

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Understand the basic knowledge of Servant Leaders.
2. Understand serve-first mindset, and how it focuses on empowering and uplifting those around them by serving and not commanding.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- Computer
- Internet Access
- Text Book

DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITIES

For each module please expect the following activities:

- Read through the lesson/session contents (including articles) and watch videos
- Stimulating Discussion
- Take a short quiz on the material presented
- Complete a written assignment with open-ended responses
- Nonprofit Organization Scenario Project
- Group Project Presentation

Unit 5: The Servant

FOUR WEEK LESSON OUTLINE

Week 1: Theory & Stimulating Discussion

- 5.1 Mother Teresa
- 5.2 Martin Luther King Jr.
- 5.3 Nelson Mandela
- 5.4 Abraham Lincoln
- 5.5 Cesar Chavez
- 5.6 Watchman Nee
- 5.7 Servant Leadership and You

Week 2: Case Study Research, Data Mining & Research Essay

- Research and investigate questions 1 & 2
- Write Research essay
- Case Study 1: Find organizations that serve a need in your local area.
- Case Study 2: Research a servant leader.

Week 3: Collaborative Project Idea, Creation & Development and Problem Solving

- Project: Nonprofit Organization Scenario

Week 4: Project Presentation

- Group presentations before classmates